

The 44th Annual Business Meeting was called to order on April 1, 2022, by Madam President, Zoe Tripp. A roll call was taken for the voting delegates present and a quorum was established by Madam Secretary, Julia Tripp. The delegation moved to vote on the next State President, a pool which consisted of Eli Hicks and Meredith Morgan. After voting had completed, voting on the 2022-2023 general officer pool, which consisted of Emmaleigh Coffey, Grace Deckard, and Mark Nashi. Due to the lack of candidates in the general officer pool, a special election was automatically put into place, which would take place concluding the 2022 State Leadership Conference. After voting took place for the general officer pool, Madam President adjourned the meeting until the 44th Annual Business Meeting was called back to order.

The 44th Annual Business Meeting was called back to order on April 1, 2022, by Madam President. A quorum was established by Madam Secretary. The financial report was read and approved by Madam Treasurer, Iris Li. Madam Secretary gave the membership report, which will be filled for audit at the Tennessee Technology Student Association headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee at the Tennessee Department of Education. Mister Vice President, Eli Hicks, gave the membership committee report, which was filled for audit at the Tennessee Technology Student Association headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee at the Tennessee Department of Education. Mister Vice President also recognized the 2021-2022 Membership Committee. There was no previous business. Madam Treasurer moved to limit debate to thirty seconds for or thirty seconds against and sixty minutes in total for debate. This motion was passed. Madam Sergeant & Arms called for orders of the day. The first order of the day was the recognition of advisors. All advisors were asked to stand so they can be recognized for all the strenuous work they do. The next order of the day was the parade of chapter presidents. Chapter presidents were asked to come on stage and individually give a fun fact about their chapter. The final order of business was to address the proposed bylaw amendments. The first proposed bylaw amendment was to amend Article X, Section 1 (Middle College High School). Point of Order was called by Madam President and was well taken by the delegate. The conversation about the proposed bylaw resumed and the amendment passed with unanimous vote. The next proposed bylaw amendment was to amend Article IV, Section 4, Subsection Aiii (Collierville High School). The amendment was passed. The final bylaw amendment proposed was Section IV, Section 2 (Hardin Valley Academy), which was voted on and passed. Madam Secretary readed the TSA Creed. Madam President then asked the delegation to read the TSA Motto. Seeing that there was no further business, Madam President entertained a motion to adjourn the meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 8:44 on April 1, 2022.

Minutes Respectfully Submitted,

Julia Tripp, Madam Secretary.