

Tennessee Technology Student Association Code of Behavior

1. Teachers/Advisors will assume full responsibility that delegates abide by the Tennessee TSA dress code and code of behavior at all times including travel to and from conferences.
2. All delegates shall behave in a courteous manner and refrain from language and/or actions that could bring discredit upon them, their school and/or TSA. Delegates should wear name badges at all times except in sleeping quarters.
3. Delegates shall be fully clothed at all times outside of sleeping quarters. This includes movement between hotel rooms.
4. Delegates agree not to consume or have in possession any alcoholic beverages or non-prescription narcotics, gamble, smoke or use other tobacco products during the conference.
5. Conduct not conducive to an education conference will not be tolerated. Examples of unacceptable conduct includes, but is not limited to, disrupting a business-like atmosphere, consorting with non-conference individuals and or any activities which will endanger self or others.
6. Delegates are expected to attend all general sessions. Delegates shall keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
7. Delegates shall observe the curfew hour. It is the responsibility of the teacher/advisor to ensure compliance with this article.
8. Delegates shall refrain from all types of roughhousing including dropping articles out of the windows or balconies. Delegates understand that girls' hotel rooms are off limits to boys and boys' rooms are off limits to girls unless an advisor is present. Chapters found in violation will be asked to leave the conference.
9. Delegates agree to pay for all incidentals charged to their rooms. These will be shown on individual bills and paid for the by the local chapter or chapter members.
10. Delegates shall respect the hotel property of which they are a guest and will pay for any property damage or loss that occurs due to their stay during the conferences.
11. Delegates shall not use portable stereos or other loud music making devices outside their rooms and will keep the volume low while they are in rooms.

It is understood that each student attending the conference will abide by the Code of Behavior with a positive attitude so that Technology Engineering Education and Tennessee TSA will continue to have the respect of the education community, business and industry, and the general public.
